On the warm Saturday afternoon of October 9th, 27 canines and their owners competed in the First Annual "Sacramento's Ugliest Dog Contest & Cutest Canine Pageant" presented by Top Dawg Restaurant and Del Paso Boulevard Partnership. The beautiful and unique The Greens Hotel at 1700 Del Paso Boulevard was the venue where over 200 folks came to participate and anticipate whose canine would receive the titles and trophies.

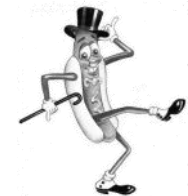

An amazing twenty-two entries for "Cutest Canine Pageant" were on hand (or paw) strutting their stuff to win over our panel of Guest Judges: City Councilmember Sandy Sheedy; District Director Cortez Quinn; and former WNBA Sacramento Monarchs Player Ruthie Bolton.

It was "Tangles" a 5-month old Pomeranian Pup and owner Dorothy who took the First Place Title of "Cutest Canine". With "Rufus", a wired-hair dachshund with owner Sabina taking Second Place. Rounding out the top three was "Flea", a Schnoodle with owner Justin.

Thank you Tony Vang and Wells Fargo Bank for sponsoring the awards for this event! Proceeds went to benefit these local animal organizations
